Coming in September: Preservation Alliance Offers FREE Workshops for Old House Owners

(July 31, 2008) -- Are you planning to purchase and restore an older home? Are you in the midst of home renovation looking for great how-to information? The Preservation Alliance for Greater Philadelphia is pleased to announce two upcoming series of workshops in September for owners, and aspiring owners of older and historic homes. Attendees will have the opportunity to learn about the best practices for restoration and maintenance of older and historic homes. These popular programs are free and open to the public, but seating is limited and reservations are required. The workshops are presented in collaboration with the Fairmount Park Historic Preservation Trust, Cedar Park Neighbors and the University City Historical Society.
